Lunch And Learn: How Managing Your Online Reputation Will Grow Your Practice

Caleb Manscill

Online health information combined with social media channels like Twitter and Instagram has created a new generation of patients. They are empowered and driving a consumerism marketplace. Patients have a voice in their own care that they have never had before. Patients are using social media platforms and review sites to choose their doctor or medical practice. Given these stakes, you can't afford to leave your online reputation to chance. Come learn from Caleb Manscill on how to not only manage your online reputation but to grow your patient visits. In this session you will learn how to optimize your physician profile on major review sites; respond to patient reviews on the web; and leverage processes and technologies to grow your online influence and increase patient visits

Executive Managers Track

1:00pm-1:30pm

Shades Of Grey: "Ethics In The Workplace" 0.5 CMOM-POD/0.5 PMAC

Tina Del Buono, PMAC

Ethical standards seem to be talked about less and less in the workplace until something happens. It is the little things we do that can lead to the big act that compromises our ethical standards and many times these little things are brushed under the carpet. We need to be people with high ethical standards in our practices because it is expected. This presentation will review what those standards need to reflect in our everyday actions.

1:30pm-2:00pm

How To Say It: Improving Non-Verbal Communication 0.5 CMOM-POD/0.5 PMAC

John Guiliana, DPM, MS

Studies show as little as 7% of communication is transmitted verbally. Over half of our communication is body language, followed by tone and inflection. We may unintentionally exhibit non-verbal cues that do not match up with the message we are trying to get across. Attend this session to learn how to improve non-verbal communication to become a better communicator and leader.

2:00pm-2:30pm

Working Through Other People 0.5 CMOM-POD/0.5 PMAC

4:00pm-4:30pm

Management 101: "Getting The Team To Buy In" 0.5 CMOM-POD/0.5 PMAC

Tina Del Buono, PMAC

There is nothing more frustrating than having to "prod" staff members to fulfill the expectations of their positions. The best way to get the team to buy in to what the practice vision is, is to be NICE to them.

N: Nurture Them

I: Inform Them

C: Create an Open Environment

E: Educate Them Continually
